

Estate Planning: A Family Affair

Baranoff PTA Lecture Series

Curious about Estate Planning? Keep putting it off?

Not sure you really have an "estate" to plan for?

Please join us for an informative presentation by local attorney, and Baranoff mom, Georgette Hogarth. This presentation will provide you with a base understanding of the estate planning process and what is involved.

March 11, 2010

Baranoff Elementary School

6:30pm

The presentation will last approximately 30 minutes with a Question and Answer session to follow

What is Estate Planning?

Is a Will all I need?

Talk to an Attorney? How much will that cost?

In a weak economy, do I still have an estate? Is it worth protecting?

Can't I just use forms On-line? Do I really NEED an Attorney?

What do I need to do to plan for my young children?

What is Probate? Should I avoid it?
